

Embracing eJustice to Effectively Process Court Cases

The Business Challenge.

Transform the justice process in prepare for the future of digitization required by 2025.

The Solution.

Unisys Application Services, including digital government and eJustice solutions, especially related to court case documents.

Results and Benefits.

- Improved efficiency and security in the justice process by ensuring availability of all legal documents when and where needed
- Achieved an infrastructure model that enables a scalable, secure and reliable environment

“We are working with Unisys’ digital government solutions to raise the level of digitization of justice to a new level. The Rheinland-Pfalz Judiciary is ready for this change through which workflows will be streamlined and legal procedures will be expedited. This benefits citizens and businesses to resolve disputes and seek justice more effectively.
