

Helping Millions of Citizens in Spain Find Jobs via Digital Services

The Business Challenge.

Address growing citizen and employee expectations to engage with government agencies in much the same way they interact with online businesses – accessible, interactive and instantaneous.

The Solution.

Unisys defined and maintains an architectural framework of web applications to standardize the developments of various teams; includes common interfaces; leverages standards and open source frameworks (Spring, Spring Web Flow, JSF and Open JPA).

Results and Benefits.

- Achieved substantial improvement in efficiency by reducing errors in production and improving system performance and application testing.

“Through the service provided by Unisys, we have been able to mitigate risk and reduce costs in our development projects, resulting in better services for citizens and internal users.”
